For both programs, admission is open to all regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability.

The CACFP is a program of the Food and Nutrition Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The CACFP provides aid to child and adult care institutions and family or group day care homes for the provision of nutritious foods that contribute to the wellness, healthy growth, and development of young children, and the health and wellness of older adults and chronically impaired disabled persons. Through CACFP, more than 3.3 million children and 120,000 adults receive nutritious meals and snacks each day as part of the day care they receive.
