Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest Pennsylvania Joins Feeding America for Hunger Action Day

September 19, 2022 – Hunger Action Day is this Friday, September 23, 2022. Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest Pennsylvania will join Feeding America and other network member food banks to inspire people to act and raise awareness of people facing the impossible choice of hunger. Food banks around the country are working to make a real and lasting impact on food insecurity in their communities and they are asking for the public's support.

Orange is the color of hunger relief. During Hunger Action Day, let's join together by wearing orange and raising our voices all across the country on behalf of the millions of people facing food insecurity. September 23rd is a day where collective efforts across the country are focused for greater impact.

Also, in the month of September, people across Northwest Pennsylvania can get involved in the movement by learning, committing, and speaking up about the ways to end hunger. You can get involved by:

- Donating to Second Harvest Food Bank of NWPA at www.nwpafoodbank.org.
- Volunteer at our warehouse, office, or remotely.
- Follow and share Second Harvest Food Bank of NWPA on our social sites.

About Feeding America

Feeding America is the largest hunger-relief organization in the United States. Through a network of 200 food banks and 60,000 food pantries and meal programs, we provide meals to more than 40 million people each year. Feeding America also supports programs that prevent food waste and improve food security among the people we serve; educates the public about the problem of hunger; and advocates for legislation that protects people from going hungry.
