Second Harvest Food Bank Announces New Military Share Food Distribution in Clearfield County

June 18, 2024 – Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest Pennsylvania announces its new Clearfield County Military Share Mobile Food Distribution that will debut on Wednesday, July 10, 2024, at noon. This program is for income-qualifying active or retired military members and their immediate families who are in need of food. Second Harvest's Military Share Program is a mobile food distribution that provides fresh, nutritious foods for families with at least one member who has served in the armed forces. The addition of the Clearfield program makes five Military Share Programs across Second Harvest's service area. Second Harvest aims to begin this much needed service for 120 households in Clearfield County.

The first drive-thru distribution will occur at the Dubois Alliance Church parking lot, located at 1004 S. Main Street, Dubois, PA 16508. The Clearfield Military Share distribution will continue to take place every other month on the second Wednesday at noon. The distribution is on a first come, first served basis.
